

Mrs. Ronald George Turner

The First Baptist church was the setting for the recent marriage of Marilyn Faye Powell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett A. Powell, 2091 W. 166th st., Gardena, to Ronald George Turner, son of Mrs. Valerie Turner, 1820 Arlington. The bridegroom is with the Air Force in Texas.

POWELL-TURNER UNITED IN AFTERNOON SERVICE

Wedding vows were said by Mr. and Mrs. Everett A. Powell's daughter, Marilyn Faye, and Ronald George Turner, son of Mrs. Valerie Turner, June 23, at the First Baptist church, with the Rev. Nathan H. Bond officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown with classic tiered back, ruffled neckline, and traditional long sleeves. The head piece had a fingertip veil with a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white stephanotis centered around white orchids.

Attendants were Mrs. Carolyn Such, matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Christine Roberts, Lorraine Carr, and Betty Powell, sister of the bride. Candlelighters were Ann Sackman and Bonnie Fletcher. Lily Pettit, flower girl, carried a basket shaped like a parasol, and filled with rose petals.

Best man was Howard Brady with Monte Backstrom and Jim Schiebler serving as ushers. Rickey Winland was the ring bearer.

The bride's mother wore a dusty rose lace dress over taffeta, with white accessories, and the mother of the groom wore a pale blue nylon lace sheath with white accessories.

The couple was graduated from local schools. The groom is with the Air Force, stationed in El Paso Texas, where the couple will make its home after a brief honeymoon.

THE TEACHINGS of Jesus were simple; and yet he found it difficult to make the rulers understand, because of their great lack of spirituality.—Mary Baker Eddy.
